By Virginia Ann Work

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Zephyr Wind from the West continues the story of Judith and Adrian D Arcy, Thomas (who was once Brother Louis) and his wife, Gabrielle, Leon Fitzgerald and Lady Matilde, Miguel, Old Bric and all the other characters you met in the first two books. In this third novel, the story begins with Judith and Adrian living in a castle by the Marmara Sea. Judith longs to travel to Palestine to recover the scrolls she left with Micah, and she also desires to be reunited with her family in France. Adrian wants to stay there and become the castellan for Choniatas Nicetas, yet when troubling events occur, they discover they must leave their home and travel west. When Leon and Lady Matilde join their hands on their wedding day at Matilde's castle in Poitou, they are shocked by mercenaries who invade their peaceful day and bring horror, death and destruction into their lives. Reeling with grief and seething with anger, Leon seeks aid from Adrian, yet does not find it. They return to Poitou to discover that the...
