Divide this sheet into twelve spaces as was done with sheet 1. The sections shown in Fig. 47 are to be drawn on this sheet, the name of each section being printed beneath it as shown. In space 11, draw another cast iron section, using the 30X60 triangle, the lines making an angle of 30 deg. with the horizontal (see Fig. 7). Owing to the larger area to be sectioned, the distance between the section lines should be about three times that shown. Place the title in space 12. Finish with ink lines. As this drawing is, of course, not to scale the words omitted. scale: full size should be 33. Sheet 3. Draw the bolts, etc., illustrated in Fig. 65, using the full size scale. Arrange them so that the sheet will present...

Reviews

This publication is indeed gripping and intriguing. It is actually written in basic terms and not difficult to understand. I am just pleased to explain how here is the greatest publication we have read through during my own lifestyle and could be the best pdf for at any time.
