It is but due to the owner, the consignees, master and crew of the Atalaya to say that there rests not a shade of suspicion on any one of them. The witnesses have been examined apart viva voce. The testimony of the master and crew is concordant and void of contradictions. They all have the appearance of quiet, inoffensive persons. The master has been in the employ of the New York firms for the last fifteen years, he enjoys a good character, and his personal appearance certainly carries no indication of freebooting or revolutionary tendencies. The sum and substance of their testimony, one and all, is that neither on the present nor previous voyages made by them in the Atalaya to Cienfuegos had they any knowledge of arms or munitions of war being on board of her. The decree...
