Not illustrated. 1862 Excerpt: .by $782.63 the donations of the year preceding--$450 have been received in legacies, and 8756.37 in dividends, interest on notes, etc. Our indebtedness has been lessened by $900, and we have now a balance on hand of $388.63. There are due this day, for services already rendered, upwards of $4,500, and our liabilities for grants in completion of a year s arrangement, which missionaries have been encouraged to expect, may be reckoned at $1,300. If to the amount of donations received by the Treasurer of this Society are added $402.88 given directly to the American Home Missionary Society, it will give a total of $9,187.47 contributed in the State, during the year, for domestic missions. It may well be a subject of congratulation and thankfulness, that the donations to this Society during the past year have exceeded those of the year preceding by nearly $800--($782.88.) The receipts from legacies, also, and from other sources, have been somewhat increased, so that our Treasurer has been able to pay off a part of what was due for borrowed money. The Society, however, is still in debt, and is commencing a new year with less of balance on hand, and with pecuniary obligations to its missionaries larger than existed at the beginning of the former year. Unless aid shall be withheld from churches, urgently needing and imploring it, and grants lessened to faithful laborers, who have scarcely received hitherto a competent support, we shall need supplies for the coming...
