Hesperus. 1 Paperback(s), 2009. soft. Book Condition: New. Remembered as much for his outstanding lyric poems as for his unconventional lifestyle, Percy Bysshe Shelley (17921822) is best known for such works as "Ozymandias," "To a Skylark," and "Ode to the West Wind." In this short, authoritative biography, Daniel Hahn describes Shelley's extraordinary life using extracts from the poet's work, creating a portrait of the outlandish genius who published Gothic horror novelettes in his teens and married twice the second time to the woman who eventually wrote Frankenstein but who went on to create some of England's finest poetry during the course of his short life (he died a month short of his 30th birthday). 152.
