Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Important Correspondence: Friendly Discussion of Party Politics in 1860-1 We think the letters will interest our readers, as they come from two gentlemen well known in the State, who represent the two opposite party principles, which have been the point of contest for seventy years. Steubenville, Nov. 19, 1860. Dear Sir: I listened with much interest to your address in this town on the 1st inst., as I always have done to your well considered arguments on any subject, so different from the mere rhapsody and declamation with which most partisan speakers on all sides entertain their audiences. Our National affairs surely have enough of sound philosophical principles in their elementary substance to pay a thinking man richly for searching out and developing them for the earnest instruction and enlightenment of his less favored fellow citizens, instead of entangling them in sophistries or blinding their judgments and substituting passion by ringing the changes on party names which once had a definite idea attached to them, now long since passed away, whilst the names are used by friends and foes as passports for directly antagonistic notions. The philosophical principles of our government found no prototype in the institutions of modern Europe, and consequently not in its recognized social philosophy. Milton, and if I do not mistake, one or two German writers of a still earlier age, shadowed forth some germs of the idea. Luther in fact by boldly claiming freedom for the conscience laid the broad foundation on which personal and civil liberty have since been erected. In fact how could tyranny over the persons of men stand and justify itself in the face of a...
