Operation Rolling Thunder, is an excellent book on building prayer and worship into the fabric of a church, area, region or nation. Tim has lived and modeled these principles in front of my eyes and they work! Dan Hammer Pastor Sonrise Chapel and Leader of the Northwest New Wine Network Many leaders are looking for the type of information that God has already given Tim. Look no further! Joe McIntyre President, International Fellowship of Ministries Manifestations of power are to be more than just noise. Operation Rolling Thunder details the account of an apostolic strategy to touch a region and change the hearts of men as the lightening of God's truth are confirmed with signs following. Tim's book is a powerful testimony of what can happen when God's people pray. Greg J Daley Associate pastor Seattle Revival Center Vice president of International Fellowship of Ministries Tim Taylor co-founded Watchman Ministries International with his wife Brenda in 1992. He is a spiritual catalyst and leader with a broad background of experience in the ministry, business and the military. His passion is to see the Christian leaders from every sphere of society and churches in a city or region connect with one another under a canopy of 24/7 prayer in their city. This supports strategic outreach in every sphere of society. He oversees CONECT (Christian Outreach Network Establishing City-wide Teamwork) and the Spiritual War College. He is a member of the International Fellowship of Ministers and the International Coalition of Apostles. Tim and Brenda make their home in Renton, Washington, and have two children and two grandchildren.
