The first and most obvious function of these arts is to enhance the student's powers of aesthetic appreciation for the forms of art involved in drawing and singing, since these exercises give an insight into the laws of regularity, symmetry, and harmony as elements of expression that can be obtained so effectively in no other way. The exercise of these arts, moreover, helps to develop the mind's latent power of appreciation of what is most satisfying in the ideals of art. In addition to this general function of these high-school forms of art study, each has important specific functions. Drawing trains the eye and the hand, whereas singing trains the ear and the vocal organs. A new sort...
