Excerpt: . . . PKEFACE. This Book has been compiled, in order to keep in view of the family the course of the Christian year, as observed in the Festivals and Celebrations of the Church. In the ordinary arrangement of Prayers for a month, this is totally lost sight of. Whether it be Christmas, or Easter, or Whitsuntide, --whether the season be one of penitence or triumph, --the same words are used. It has been my endeavour to keep the words and thoughts as simple as possible. I have found that, without exception, the books which I have been in the habit of using are written in a style, and in language, far above the comprehension of children and servants. The model aimed at has been the style of the Common Prayer Book, which is easy and familiar to all. A large proportion of the Prayers will be...
