AROUND CRANLEIGH

The History Press Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Around Cranleigh, Michael Miller, This book offers glimpses into the past of a rural community that many believe to be the largest village in England. Using around 180 old photographs drawn mainly from the author's extensive personal collection, together with examples from other local sources, the book illustrates in vivid style some of the changes that have taken place in the everyday lives of its people, and the people of...
