Extensive information! Its this type of excellent study. I have read and i am sure that i will gonna go through yet again once more down the road. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

First an orientation meeting was held with the chief elected or appointed official of the community, the Fire Chief or Sheriff, and the unit commander. We explained what USFA wanted to accomplish, how the unit was chosen, and what was desired to be achieved. After the orientation meeting TriData met with the unit commander, followed by separate interviews with the fire investigators and police officers. Then a meeting was held with the prosecutors office. This schedule reflected the natural flow of an investigation--beginning with the officials who politically and monetarily sustained the unit, and ending with the agency that tried the arson cases in court. Each site visit ended with a debriefing attended by the unit commander and or the Fire Chief or Sheriff. D. Terminology Lack of consistent terminology was a constant problem.
