My written statement details these components. In my judgement, we have achieved the right balance between enough compensation to acquire and retain quality management, while preventing compensation from exceeding appropriate bounds. In sum, the directors and senior executives tied to the financial collapse at each Enterprise are no longer with the companies. The group of senior executives who remain, as well as those who were recently hired, are essential to the Enterprises fulfilling their important and challenging responsibilities. And in attempting to do so, the Enterprises must operate with an uncertain future that will be the source of much public debate. As conservator, I believe it is critical to protect the taxpayer interests in the Enterprises by ensuring that each company has experienced, qualified people managing the day-to-day business operations in the midst of this uncertainty. Any other approach puts at risk the management of more than 5...
