I Did It. I'm Sorry.

By Buehner, Caralyn

Dial Books, 1998. Hard cover. Book Condition: New. Buehner, Mark (illustrator). Illustrated. New. No dust jacket as issued. Glued binding. Paper over boards. With dust jacket. 32 p. Contains: Illustrations. Audience: Children/juvenile. From School Library Journal Kindergarten-Grade 3A Following the format of their popular picture book about manners, It's a Spoon, Not a Shovel (Dial, 1995), the Buehnerns now take on behavioral issues. On each double-page spread, readers are given three choices, two of them obviously wrong and quite amusing, and must pick the proper behavior for the animal in question. Situations include promising to do something until a more attractive offer comes along; considering a lie to avoid punishment; wanting to cheat on a test; and being tempted to destroy or litter property. The language is filled with tongue-tripping alliteration and wit: "Run over Rudy's red rubber radio repeatedly." The large, bright illustrations, executed in oils and acrylics, sustain the text's humor. A group of fish are, literally, in school; a bat reads Wait Until Dark; Santa and his reindeer fly across the Arctic sky; and a fish has a packet of Gummy Worms. Children can search the illustrations for the letters of the correct answers and check their...
